

NEW RELEASES FROM POETICA CHRISTI PRESS :

Threshold Maree Silver

'Maree Silver's poetry touches every sense. In Threshold – a miscellany, Maree creates imagery that is uniquely Australian. Tanks lean rustily; corellas squabble; frogs croak challenges from the billabong; the citrussy perfume of lemon-scented gums infuses nostrils while earthy ochres blur into cellophane sky. Raised in the Wimmera, Maree recalls childhood memories of desert, plain and river. They come to glorious, descriptive life through her poetry and exquisite photography, and continue to live in harmony with poems of suburbia, family and adulthood. (Leigh Hay) soft cover, 126 pages, inc. colour photographs. $25

In Search of Peace Joy Chellew

There is nothing contrived or artificial about Joy Chellew's poetry. She writes as she thinks, speaks and lives her life – with complete sincerity, clarity of thought, and based firmly on her relationship with God. (Rev John Minotti)

soft cover, 80 pages, $20

Inner Child edited by Leigh Hay and Maree Silver

In this anthology, poets let their inner child speak. They share their dreams, imaginings, adventures and the joys of innocence. In an undemanding reality where time is meaningless, fear unknown and trust absolute, we are reminded that for the inner child, anything is possible.

soft cover, 122 pages. $20

Trumped by Grace Peter Stiles

Shortlisted for the 2016 Australian Christian Book of the year awards

"In Trumped by Grace, Peter Stiles shares a stunning poetic ear. And what is more, since that ear is informed by the Word, we find our joy doubled."

David Craig, Professor of English, Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio

"...carefully crafted poems... to be savoured as they effect the task of all true poetry – to render wonderful again the world in which we live, in its particularities and beauties, its sorrows and its joys, all sustained by the love of God."- David Jasper, Professor of Literature and Theology, University of Glasgow, Scotland

soft cover, 72 pages, $15

White on White Gina Sabto

"Savouring the nuances of love, moods that swing to nature's changes, Gina Sabto is a poet to explore and to treasure. This deeply personal collection is also varied and adventurous, reaching out to many lives, with fine poems on Dido, Ophelia, Madame de Stael, a pharaoh...Dream-states, everyday experience and cultural insights meet in 'White on White'; its frank but subtle poems welcome the reader in."

Judith Rodriguez

soft cover, 62 pages, $15

Patches of Godlight – poems, prayers, contemplations
Janette Fernando

“Patches of Godlight is a refreshingly honest book about one woman’s journey towards a closer relationship with God. In diary entries spanning two decades, Janette Fernando questions, struggles, rejoices and abides in God’s unfailing love. She complements her diary entries with superbly crafted poetry that is both evocative and rich in imagery. Her profoundly moving text and accompanying photographs make for inspirational reading. Patches of Godlight is testament to Janette Fernando’s skills as a writer and poet. It is also a testament to her love for her Saviour. This book honours God.”

Leigh Hay – Writer, Editor, Poet

soft Cover 152 pages, including 22 colour pages, $25

Imagine

edited by Janette Fernando and Maree Silver

“This striking anthology features ‘Imagine’ as verb, noun, adjective and adverb, as act, as facility, as perspective, as place, as product, and as effect. The poems within range from the cosmic to the domestic, from Biblical and prehistoric origins to human and familial ghosts, from memories of war and youth to moments of love and regret, from schoolyard to conflict-zone to red desert to old people’s home, from water dazzle to blue wren flutter, from What Is to What If... Generosities of words shaped for wonder...”

Earl Livings – Writer, Editor, Teacher

soft cover, 128 pages, $20

Hope whispers

edited by Janette Fernando and Maree Silver

“To possess and express hope is intrinsic to our being human. Our hope, whether as noun or verb, opens to broad and diverse landscape: sun-basking peaks to darkening valleys. We have hope in someone or something, be that in – relationship; an idea; a way of life; creation’s richness; a dream; a wish; an event; family; a place; a plan; the arts ; and so on...There is the ‘sure and certain’ hope of being in Christ through grace. In your hand is this anthology with poems that travel across this varying landscape. Different poems in style and subject, infused with hope. With a quietness and gentleness, they draw you in, invite you to read...to look up...and reflect...” Ian Keast – poet and reviewer

soft cover, 132 pages, $20
